

The Church Assembly in Toronto

Donate via e-Transfer

e-Transfer Account & Tax Receipts

- The church has set up the following email address for e-Transfer:
tcat.bank@gmail.com
- It is important to make sure that you set up an e-Transfer Contact/Recipient with this email address
- Early next year, we will email to you an Official Receipt for Income Tax Purposes for your total amount of donation in this year
- For donation receipts, some banks (e.g. TD, CIBC, BNS) let us know your email address from your banking profile which we will use
- For some banks (e.g. RBC), please provide your email address in the “Message” textbox when sending
- For some banks (e.g. BMO), please enter your email address where prompted

e-Transfer Message Field

- All donation received will be used for the general day-to-day operation of the church.
- Please only use the “Message” field to provide your email address or to let us know that your e-Transfer is for payment of certain items/services.
- Please do not use the “Message” field to designate your donation as gift for a specific person as all personal envelopes must now be dropped into the offering box in the meeting hall.
- Any e-Transfer with designation for any specific person will not be delivered, but instead will just be treated as a donation of the entire amount to the general fund.

Taking Care of Needy Saints

- If you know of any brother or sister that requires financial assistance, please fellowship the need privately to any elder or co-worker. They will let the serving brothers know of such need, and the serving brothers will help the saint requiring help in the best way possible.
- If the Lord so leads you, you may put some cash in an envelop, write on the envelop “for so-and-so”, and drop the envelop in the offering box in our meeting hall. This is called a personal envelop. The serving brothers will not open the envelop; and will deliver it to the person designated.

The screenshot shows the 'Verify' screen in the TD mobile app. At the top, there is a green header with a back arrow and the word 'Verify'. Below this is a yellow information box with an 'i' icon and the text: 'By tapping 'Send Money', you agree that you've reviewed and confirmed the information below, and that you won't be able to cancel this transfer.' The main content area displays the recipient details: 'church assembly in Toronto', email 'tcat.bank@gmail.com', and a note that 'THE CHURCH ASSEMBLY IN TORONTO has set up Autodeposit for this email and/or mobile.' Below this, the transfer amount is '$50.00' and the message is 'covid 19'. A grey box at the bottom of the form states: 'A transfer fee and regular account transaction fees may apply.' At the very bottom, there are two buttons: 'Cancel' and 'Send Money'.

An Opportunity to be Blessed

What God has given us today, in His loving kindness, is an opportunity of a lifetime. No, to be exact, several lifetimes. An opportunity to experience His intimate presence casting out all worries and fears. An opportunity to find Him as our refuge and underneath are the everlasting arms.

Having been thus blessed, sheltered, and secure in Him, may we also see the needs around us, and say, “Lord, here am I, make me a blessing to someone today.” Indeed He blesses us so that many more may be blessed through us. May none of us fall short in this occasion and fail to bless someone today.
